ALMA

Father James Malone presided on the of the Ad Grad boards.

Father Hagemann gave the renovation triduum for May 1.

A Missa Cantata concluded the solemn triduum in honor of St. Andrew Bobola.

General examinations began June 2.

Mr. Raber was seriously ill with a sinus infection. He is out of danger.

The new highway, swept and oiled, is scheduled to open about July 1.

The house picnic, May 11, was held at Phelan Park.

LOYOLA UNIVERSITY

The renovation triduum was given by Father Taylor for Ascension Day.

Examinations began May 24. Commencement Day is June 11.

The degree J. U. D. given in 1938 to Archbishop Cantwell in absentia, will this year be conferred on him personally.

A public Scholastic Disputation in Philosophy was given by the Seniors at Blessed Sacrament Auditorium.

Special oral examinations for English "majors," held in the library during the past month, were open to visitors. Distinguished men of letters, including secular priests, a Christian Brother, and lay professors from secular universities, assisted as guest examiners.

Father Maginnis has been asked by Bishop Armstrong to return to Mono County for parish missionary work during the summer.

Father Vaughan spoke on International Relations in Fresno and in Bakersfield.

Father Heney's talk at the L. A. Public Library on "The Philosophy of Mercier" was received with commendation.

Father Ferguson spoke to the professors and students of Whittier College on "The Catholic Church and Education." Visiting listeners have reported a more than enthusiastic audience reaction.

During the present year there has been a 100% increase of attendance at the Night College. To insure a further increase for the coming term, Father Lynch has addressed the seniors in all L. A. Catholic high schools, also members of most diocesan societies.

The latest edition of "The Queen's Page," Sodality Quarterly issued under the supervision of Father Spearman, surpasses the excellence of previous issues.

May 27, a large Bridge Luncheon was conducted by the Mothers' Guild and the Maecenas Club to assist the drive for paving Loyola Boulevard and other campus roads.

The University Male Chorus, besides many recent appearances throughout metropolitan L. A., served as choir at the Mass at the Cathedral on the feast of its dedication.

Ten members of the graduating class have been named charter members of the Loyola Chapter of Alpha Sigma Nu, the National Jesuit Honor Society.

Several drama broadcasts were given by student casts over the NBC network during the month. A representative group of CBS and NBC officials and performers attended the Radio Club's banquet.

Mr. Wilson, moderator of the Loyolan, secured as guest speakers for the Staff Dinner, Ted LeBarthon, feature columnist for the L. A. Evening News, and Ted Cook, famous humorist of the Hearst papers. The latter dispensing with his usual satire, spoke notably on the theme of church-fostered art in America.

Princess Conchita Pignatelli, relative by marriage of the family of Blessed Joseph Pignatelli and a writer in the L. A. Examiner, presented the library with a rare copy of the Rules, printed in Spanish in Naples in 1703.

About 3500 visitors were at Del Rey on May 7 for the Spring Practice Football Game and Alumni Barbecue.

Eight Laymen's Retreats are scheduled for the summer.

LOYOLA HIGH

The annual inspection of the R. O. T. C. was held May 11. It is the largest unit in California. It was given a picture and a write-up in the daily paper.

The lay teachers and their wives were given a banquet in an outside restaurant.

Father Charles Leahy, representing the Archbishop on the Americanization Program of the American Legion in the Hollywood Bowl, was one of the three speakers. The Morning Examiner complimented him in its editorial.

Twenty-five Sodalists attended the Convention of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine and led three group discussions. The only high school students present, they were three times complimented by different speakers.

During June, July and August, Father G. Flynn will conduct Father Vaughan's Catholic Quarter Hour on the radio on Saturday nights.

Father Moore spent three days in speaking to the individual classes about our Mission in China.

The spring play, "The Bishop Misbehaves," was an invitational affair.

The annual "Loyola Night" under the direction of Father Coffey, netted $4000.

The senior retreat was given by Father C. Leahy.

Two are being examined for the Colombia Province of the Society. A third is joining the Dominicans, and a fourth will go to the diocesan seminary. There are eight prospects at least for California.

The track team is undefeated for the fourth successive year.

238 took the scholarship exams.

High School Graduation, June 15, in Blessed Sacrament Church.

LOS GATOS

Messrs. Bain, Doyle, Duggan, Evart, Frugoli, Hartung, Houle, Lafferty, Maring, Monihan, Savage, Schenk and Spohn have arrived from Mt. St. Michael's and are being housed in the Juniorate until villa and summer school.

Father Minister's annual picnic for the Juniors was held at the newly acquired Phelan Park in Santa Cruz.

Father Perron gave the triduum for Ascension Day.

Juniorate repetitions began May 20.

Brother Semple, Scholastic Novice, was operated on May 19 for a broken appendix.

SAN FRANCISCO

Both in college and high school daily Mass was celebrated in May for Peace according to the intention of the Holy Father.

"The Bat," a 3-act play, was presented by the high school for the benefit of the high school gymnasium fund. For three nights the university auditorium was filled and a goodly sum was added to the increasing fund.

Fathers' Night was held in the high school auditorium on two occasions: once for the fathers of the students, when all the high school activities were on display; and again, under the sponsorship of the Jesuit Mothers, for the fathers of Ours.

On the first Sunday in May, a general communion and breakfast was held, at which both mothers and fathers of Ours were present. A very goodly number filled the middle aisles of the church.

Father Provincial and Father Blakely were guests for a few days.

The alumni held a barbecue and general reunion on the university field. About 600 were present and expressed great pleasure with the undertaking.

Father Gleeson gave the renovation triduum for the Scholastics. Father Provincial said the renovation Mass.

Out of the six competitive scholarships offered by U. S. F., five were won by our high school. Two others at St. Mary's College, and one more at U. S. F. given by the California Interscholastic Federation of the honor students in the state, were awarded to our high school students.

The high school debating teams in a competition of ten schools and forty contestants, held at Treasure Island, won two out of three cups awarded in the Central California Debating League.

The high school paper in a contest sponsored by St. Mary's College, was awarded a cup for first place among Catholic school papers.

The Traffic Patrol won a ribbon in a competitive meet held at Treasure Island and sponsored by the Safety Leagues of the state.

In the second semester the Junior Sodality issued a hectographed monthly, "Sodality Scripts," containing statistics and instructive paragraphs.

BELLARMINE PREP

The daily May devotions, held during the noon hour, were opened by a talk from Rev. Fr. Rector.

Father James Malone gave the Scholastics their renovation triduum.

The Junior and Senior divisions of the Annual Apologetics contest were held in the presence of the upper and lower classmen.

On May 25 the Annual Dads' barbecue and athletic field day was held on the campus.

The feast of St. Robert Bellarmine was celebrated with a holiday and picnic for the resident students, with a banquet in the evening.

SANTA BARBARA

Father Bassett accompanied by several lay teachers attended the regional conference of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine.

Father Conlon is testing the water on the Province property. It is said to be highly mineralized.

Father Acquistapace has arranged with Father Tranchese to give a Mission for the Italians of the Santa Barbara area.

Archbishop confirmed a class of 130.

Father Stack addressed a gathering of fifty public school teachers on bringing more religion into their work. He gave the Mothers' Day address at the Elks' Club. He represents the K. of C. at the State Convention in Santa Cruz.

SANTA CLARA

A spiritual bouquet consisting of a novena of Masses and Communions was presented by the students to their mothers on Mothers' Day.

The Solemn High Military Mass on Charter Day was the source of much favorable comment. Major General Bowley, Commander of the Ninth Corps area and a non-Catholic, declared it the most impressive service of its kind that he has attended. Families and friends of the student military corps were so thrilled by the ceremonies that it brought tears to their eyes. They voiced sentiments of genuine surprise and joy at this magnificent demonstration of Faith.

Colonel R. S. Pratt, Chief of Staff, General Staff Corps; Colonel Sloane, Professor of military science and tactics at Oregon State College, Corvallis; Colonel Ralph Talbot, Assistant Adjutant General, 9th Corps Area; and Captain

Howard J. John, aide to Major General Bowley, attended the Mass and the review. They and their wives together with the Deans of the colleges and their wives were the guests of the university at a luncheon after the military review.

Seven cadet officers of the student military unit were awarded second lieutenant commissions in the Field Artillery Reserve of the U. S. Army. A silver saber, award of the S. C. County Reserve Officers Association for the most outstanding member of the military unit, was won by Cadet Lieutenant Colonel Jerome Kelleher.

The degree of Litt. D. was conferred by Gonzaga University on Father Shipsey on May 25 at the annual commencement exercises. Father Shipsey gave the graduation address.

Father Henry Walsh is gathering data for a history of the Catholic Church in the Mother Lode Country, the historic gold mining centers of California and Nevada.

Father Joseph Crowley conducted the Senior Day of Recollection, preparatory to graduation.

Sylvester Andriano, prominent Catholic attorney of San Francisco, was the speaker at the 88th Commencement Exercises, May 20.

Alumni Homecoming Day was held May 28. Members of the class of '89 headed by Dr. Gerlach, University physician, together with the graduates of the class of '39 were the honored guests. Bergin Hall, the new Law College building, was dedicated. Frank Hennessey, alumnus and U. S. Attorney of San Francisco, gave the dedicatory address. There was a banquet in the students' refectory.

The moot court of Bergin Hall was used in May for a series of lectures by prominent attorneys under the auspices of the S. C. County Bar Association.

Registration for 1939-40 will begin August 16, and classes on August 21.
